CONCLUSION

Francis Schaeffer, "All I ever heard about was the converting value of the blood. All I ever heard about was if I am unsaved, I need to give my life to Christ, and I'll go to heaven. No one told me how to live the Christian life, and so all I did was repent and try harder. It was killing me. And then one day, by God's grace, He opened my eyes, and I realized there is a present value to the blood of Christ. As I looked to Christ once for conversion, now I must look to Him every day for transformation and this passage is filled with those promises: God gives grace to the humble."
